Dear Parents

Tiffin School: Ofsted's Interim Assessment

This LINK will take you to a letter addressed to parents of students at Tiffin School explaining the new process of assessing the standards of schools that have been judged to be outstanding under the new Education Bill 2011.

I am delighted to inform you that following their interim assessment, Ofsted has confirmed its judgement of the school as outstanding. They have asked us to pass on a letter that they have written to you about the process that has led to this judgement.

I am very pleased that Ofsted has recognised through its assessment that Tiffin School is sustaining the standards that allow it to be judged as outstanding. I would like to pass on my congratulations to the governors, staff and students for their excellent work that has resulted in this judgement. May I also thank parents for the role they play in supporting their sons and the school in sustaining excellent standards in education?

If you wish to know more about this new process of Ofsted assessment I will cover this topic in Headteacher's Question Time on Monday, 16 May at 7.00 pm.

Yours sincerely
